Name: Neha Navgale

Class ID: 19

Lab 1 Assignment

Install below given softwares and capture the screenshot

1. GitHub desktop and GitBash
2. Zen Hub Plugin
3. Creatly account
4. Web storm
5. Brackets
6. Ionic CLI
7. Node and NPM

GitHub

GitHub is an application which is useful for developers to store the code and manage the versions of it. Developers can create repositories for project and can store documents and codes related to the project. GitHub allows multiple people to work on single code by creating branches. Developers can log issues or bugs found in the project and can assign and manage the milestones for solving it.

GitHub

GitHub Desktop

Git desktop allows developers to clone the repository to local machine and can work on it.

GitHub Desktop

GitBash

It is a command line interface for performing various operation on GitHub repository stored locally and can push or pull the changes to remote repository.

GitBash

ZenHub

ZenHub provides additional features to GitHub for reporting, tracking issues, providing reviews etc. It is very useful for agile projects.

ZenHub

Creatly Account

It is an online design tool for creating UML diagrams, flowcharts, class diagram and many other graphics.

WebStorm

It is an IDE used for client side development in various languages such as javascript, HTML, CSS.

Brackets

It is a text editor used by developers for front end development.

Ionic CLI

It is a framework for mobile web development.

Node

Node is a platform to executing Javascript server side.

NPM

NPM is used for managing and sharing packages.

NPM